(Learner perspective)

(i.e. someone creating a course using the framework without the auhtoring tool) Able to generate a system requirements specification from the metadata of the components used Specification Able to set the passmark Able to set graduated feedback (number and range of feedback bands) Able to use any question component as part of an assessment Ability to limit assessment retakes Able to step-lock the assessment Developer (+ instructional designer) Able to inform the learner about potential data loss if they navigate away from an assessment Assessment Able to structure an assessment around subject areas / banks Able to serve up questions from a bank Able to control the number of questions served as part of the assessment per area Questionbank Able to set certain questions within an area as mandatory Able to randomise the order and choice of questions (a learner using a course which has been produced using Adapt) Able to view a course, which looks & feels nice and reflects my company's brand Able to view a single course on multiple types of devices with different viewports Able to see imagery as part of the course Able to see alternative text for imagery used in the course Able to view videos as part of the course Able to listen to audio as part of a course Able to change the course language Able to view right-to-left language courses Able to view transcripts as part of components with an audio track Look & Feel Able to set preferences to enable/disable video display Adapt Framework Able to set preferences to enable disable audio playback Able to turn background imagery on/off Able to view the course in high contrast mode Able to increase the font size of text Able to break long pages down into tabbable chunks (blockview) Able to view fonts which are not on my local computer if they have been used in the design of the course Able to view the content in an an avilable font in case specifc fonts cannot be accessed Able to save progress automatically (if delivered via an LMS) Learner Able to be informed when tracking errors occur and progress tracking is no longer possible Able to leave the course and continue in a subsequent session and find the course in the state in which I left it Tracking Able to be returned to the last page visited Able to see my progress through the course Able to see the list of complete and incomplete elements on a page Able to sit an assessment as part of the course Able to get question level feedback Able to resit the assessment Assessment Able to receive an outcome of an assessment as part of the session on a result screen Able to receive feedback dependant on the outcome/score attained Able to be signposted to specific components which I may need to review based on the outcome of the assessment Able to interact with a multiple choice question with a single correct option Able to interact with a multiple choice question with multiple correct options Able to interact with a graphical multiple choice question Able to interact with a text input question Components Able to interact with a matching question by selecting answers from one or more drop-down lists Able to receive correct/partially correct/incorrect feedback for all question types via the tutor feature

Receive option specific feedbacl for all quesiton types via the tutor feature

(author perspective)

Super Administrator
Administrator

Content Editor

Developer

Authoring Tool

Adapt Learning MVP

Reviewer

Guest User

L&D Manager

Demonstrator / Trainer